BACKGROUND

THE INTERNET HAS CHANGED

- No longer two guys in a garage!
- Highly profitable enclosed Ecosystems
- Unicorns valued at over US$1 Bn
- The big guys are VERY big! And they're like a magnet drawing others to Silicon Valley

"The reason we moved to San Francisco was our potential customers were there, our potential employees were here..Silicon Valley has a very strong network effect."

POTENTIAL SOLUTIONS

- Same services same rules
- Competition law rather than sector specific regulatory interventions
- Consumer protection and data protection across economy
- Policy driven re-adjustment
- Regional priorities – connecting the unconnected and investment in broadband networks of the future
