Parameters for CTC Project of the Year Award

1. The extent to which the ICT initiatives incorporate the three building blocks of the WSIS and Connect the World framework, namely:

   - Enabling Environment

   - Infrastructure Development

   - Development of Services and Application

2. Enabling environment (putting in place the legal framework, appropriate policy & regulations plus public awareness programmes)

3. Infrastructure development (encouraging private and public sector investment in ICT infrastructure

4. Development of services & applications

5. Employing the public private people partnership model

6. The extent to which connectivity / ICT development goals articulated in very specific terms.

7. The extent to which the plan is geared towards enabling universal access or the inclusion of all citizens.

8. Inclusion of measurement and monitoring standards for expected outcomes

----